Good Morning Sir,

The vendor is saying that they can send a tech to install the Polycom system in the Chief's Teaming Area on Tuesday 12/11.

Would the Chief's teaming area be available that day?

The install should take about 6 hours. They would like to begin at 8am, if possible.

Thanks,

B1 Updated IP - Domestic Viole...

Issue: Modifying or Rescinding Delegation Order 16-001 - Disciplinary Actions Resulting from Domestic Violence Arrests

ISSUE:

According to CBP Delegation Order 16-001, "Special Authority to Render Decision on Discipline Cases Involving Domestic Violence Related Arrests" (Jan. 04, 2016), all disciplinary actions originating from incidents of domestic violence must be decided by the Chief of the U.S. Border Patrol, or the Assistant Commissioners of the Office of Field Operations (OFO), Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR), and Air and Marine Operations (AMO). This deciding authority may not be further delegated. (b) (5)

BACKGROUND / CHALLENGES:

CBP Delegation Order 16-001 substantially alters the disciplinary process for domestic violence offenses compared to all other offenses. The Commissioner's intent in implementing Delegation Order 16-001 was to ensure consistency in the administration of disciplinary actions resulting from domestic violence incidents, and to ensure component head awareness of domestic violence issues related to their employees. The 2015 SPEAR IOP was developed to address these issues within the Border Patrol and the result has been greater consistency in discipline. CBP Delegation Order 16-001 removed this authority.

Most domestic violence arrests end up adjudicated via plea deals to lower level crimes that do not trigger the Lautenberg Amendment or no criminal charges result for a myriad of reasons.

ISSUE:

According to CBP Delegation Order 16-001, “Special Authority to Render Decision on Discipline Cases Involving Domestic Violence Related Arrests” (Jan. 04, 2016), all disciplinary actions originating from incidents of domestic violence must be decided by the Chief of the U.S. Border Patrol, the Assistant Commissioners of the Office of Field Operations (OFO), Office of Professional Responsibility (OPR), and Air and Marine Operations (AMO). This deciding authority may not be further delegated. (b) (5)

BACKGROUND / CHALLENGES:

CBP Delegation Order 16-001 substantially alters the disciplinary process for domestic violence offenses compared to all other offenses. It is reasoned that the commissioner’s intent in implementing Delegation Order 16-001 was to ensure consistency in the administration of disciplinary actions resulting from domestic violence incidents.

The 2015 SPEAR IOP was developed to address the issues of consistency in discipline within the Border Patrol. SPEAR was designated the primary procedure for processing disciplinary actions of employees who were arrested for domestic violence or alcohol related offenses. Under SPEAR, the authority to administer discipline for alcohol and domestic violence arrests was moved from the field to the headquarters level. CBP Delegation Order 16-001 removes domestic violence cases from the SPEAR process, while alcohol related arrests remain. The result of the SPEAR process is consistency in both the proposal and decision phases of the disciplinary process. This consistency has led to successful defense of disciplinary decisions in litigation, and a marked reduction in alcohol related arrests of Border Patrol personnel.

Because there are disparate personnel at the proposal stage of discipline, directive 16-001 has not achieved the desired result of consistency. As of November 1, 2018, all domestic violence related offenses will be sent to the Disciplinary Review Board (DRB) as per Delegation Order 18-201, issued on October 22, 2018. The DRB utilizes a rotating panel of GS-15 or higher proposing officials and employs ten (10) permanent Labor Relations Specialists that conduct research and prepare proposal documents for the panel. The inevitable result is greater consistency than at the sector level, but there are still differing levels of corrective action proposed for similar offenses. Even with the agency head rendering the decision, that decision is limited to sustaining, mitigating, or dismissing the proposal.

Most often, domestic violence arrests end up adjudicated via plea deals to lower level crimes that do not trigger the Lautenberg Amendment. Equally as often, cases are dismissed for any myriad of reasons such as a lack of evidence, the lack of cooperative witnesses, or an unwillingness to prosecute. In those circumstances, (b) (5)
